

DN 115 : Conditioning for Dancers

This course is designed to give students alternative ways to condition the body through a whole-body approach. This course will explore principles of conditioning, alignment for dancers, releasing tension, psychological wellness, eating to dance well, dance injuries and improving strength, flexibility, and endurance.

Credits 3

Semester Offered

Spring odd