

ED 381 : Teaching Writing/Reading in the Middle School

This course will explore the interdisciplinary approach in education, particularly in writing across the curriculum. It will concentrate on approaches and strategies to enhance reading and writing in the middle grades. Differentiated instruction and interventions for reading and writing difficulties will be discussed.

Credits 3

Semester Offered

Fall,

Spring