

SC 450 : Sociology of Health and Medical Care

This course examines the social facts of health and illness, the functioning of health institutions, and the relationship of the healthcare system to the social systems. Attention to policy relevant to health care.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

C or better in SC 100.

Semester Offered

Fall odd